TORTUGA

Yes, we are pirates!

TORTUGA originate from the Saaribbean (an island state in Saarland / Germany) and play Heavy‘N‘Roll. TORTUGA doesn't sound like a lot of their fellow pirates from the music scene. The fact that pirate bride Captain Mary Read has taken the helm makes their music unique. The listener expects clear female vocals and classic, catchy heavy metal, thickened with a good dose of 80s rock and a touch of folk. That is why TORTUGA also call themselves SaarRockPirates.

With “Pirate’s Bride” (2015), the guns of the TORTUGA frigate are aimed at classic piracy, but it doesn’t stop there. „Yes, we are pirates!“, anyhow whether spooky “When The Shit Hits The Fan” (2018), drawn “Leinen los” (2019) or being flying buccaneers “Flying Dutchman” (2021), the SaarRockPirates put their tricorn on top wherever they please. „Whatever we touch becomes pirate!“

In 2021 the SaarRockPirates present their fourth studio album "Flying Dutchman". "So far we have not had a label, because our music is free in the spirit of piracy and the idea of freedom!"
